

THE NEWS IN PERSPECTIVE

By PAUL PULTZER

The Paganization of Christmas

How low Christian mentality, morality and spirituality has sunk during this, the fateful Latter Times of the 20th Century, is especially noticeable during this Christmas holiday season. Diabolically human-engineered into mindless wonders by the Luciferian enemies of God, His Son, and Christianity, Christians celebrate the feast of the birthday of our Lord by voluntarily participating in a bacchanalian orgy of gift-buying, gift swapping, and carousing amidst a deliberately contrived, Las Vegas-like atmosphere completely devoid of religiosity. It is no wonder Christianity is on the skids.

The entire Christmas scenario today is orchestrated on the basis of a frenzied quid pro quo by which "I will give you a gift, if you will give me one" and "I will send you a postcard, if you will send me one." And, while Christians practically bankrupt themselves every year at this time to finance a manifestation of what they think is the true spirit of Christmas, the Luciferian membership of the Synagogue of Satan, having milched a rich harvest of profits, guffaw over the incredible gullibility and stupidity of Christians. For, whereas Christmas is supposed to be dedicated in honor of our Lord and not materialistic nonsense, it was they who perverted this observance into a hideous caricature of what should be a solemn, religious occasion. This paganization of the feast of the birthday of our Lord is just another step in their satanic plot to destroy Christianity and, along with it, all religious beliefs except their own and as part and parcel of the New World Order they hope to bring into being by not later than the end of this turbulent century.

The commercialization of Christmas is a Pharisaic abomination. It is not only an insult to our Lord, but is vulgar and cheap. That Christians have permitted themselves to be duped into this pagan rite, is even worse. Christmas is supposed to be celebrated in a spirit of religiosity and not by indulging in materialistic frivolity. It is supposed to be observed by religious solemnity, inner reflection, and spiritual renewal. It is supposed to be a time of peace and tranquility and not a time for frenzied gaiety, Christmas partying, and frantic scurrying around on mad buying sprees. Prayer and penance for offending God and our Lord is the true manifestation and spirit of Christmas and not the kind of materialistic lunacy being indulged in today. The sooner we Christians realize this, the better.

On what is now the twenty-fifth day of December, about 1971 years ago, Christ was born. Endowed with the supernatural gift of prophecy and thus divinely alerted to the miraculous arrival on earth of the Son of God, and having been beckoned and guided to His crib by a strange, bright star in the East, three Median-Persian wise men — Gaspar, Melchior, and Balthasar — journeyed to the little town of Bethlehem bearing symbolic gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. It was this gesture of homage to our Lord that the Luciferians of the Synagogue of Satan used as a weapon against Him and by human-engineering Christians into believing that, by bearing gifts to one another, they are actually paying homage to Jesus Christ on His birthday.

It is significant that one of these Magi — Gaspar — made this pilgrimage to pay homage to our Lord as the representative of the Hemitic or black races who, to this very day thanks to the machinations of the Synagogue of Satan, have yet to embrace true Christianity as a way of life and, consequently, have fallen prey to the enemies of Jesus Christ and are being manipulated to help destroy His teachings and legacy.

The birth of Jesus Christ and the visitation of the gift-bearing Magi gave rise to the annual celebration of Christ's Mass, or the feast of the birthday of our Lord, while the original gesture of the three wise men was symbolized by giving of gifts. From this original and simple observance, there arose a flock of un-Christian customs and traditions not consistent with realities and because of the evil machinations of the anti-Christ. In fact, by the time of the Reformation, the forces of Satan had managed to distort the religious significance of Christmas into such a caricature that it became a licentious and materialistic orgy. By 1644, for example, public behavior among Christians during the Holy Season became so despicable that the Puritan parliament of England banned its observance and, in its stead, substituted a market-day with fast. Today, it is even worse. Today, the way the birthday of Jesus Christ is commemorated by his boob-tubed and ad-enticed flock is sacrilegious, apostatized, heretical, and downright Pharisaical. And, in this paganistic madness, the hierarchy of the Christian church is just as guilty as its membership, perhaps more so, because Christ's visible Church on Earth was entrusted to the care of the clergy who have violated His trust.

Christ's visible Church on Earth does celebrate Christmas. However, He knows that what is offered up to Him today is not in accordance with His wishes and supernatural instructions. Our Lord also knows that, instead of being the solemn occasion for true religiosity which Christmas truly represents, His sacred church reeks from alcoholic fumes, while His heretical clergy gleefully milchs this "true spirit of Xmas" for materialistic gain. Consequently, His anger knows no bounds. He will demonstrate it when He purges the Earth of this contamination.

The mortal enemies of religiosity, and especially of Christianity, have Judaized Christmas into a paganistic ritual in order to achieve two objectives: to fleece Christians out of dollars while using them to help expedite the total destruction of Christianity. To attain these objectives, as a prerequisite for what they hope will be their new world order, their sales promotional efforts are colossal during the month of December. Being in absolute control of almost all major medias of mass communications, their press, radio, and TV begins selling Christmas weeks before the event. Christian and Jew-owned shops are stocked with a huge assortment of over-priced goods and the mad rush to buy is on.

Meanwhile, the streets are festooned with what is purported to be "Xmas Decorations," professional Santas surface with their money pots and bells; "Jingle Bells" blares forth from loud-speakers ad nauseam, and thus the "Spirit of Xmas" is perpetrated. In this materialistic orgy, reeking with hypocrisy, there is little or no thought given to our Lord. He is completely forgotten. To Him, no gifts are offered or given. Yet, all He expects from Christians is one, simple gift:

Brazil - Triumph of the Rosary

Why should we pray the rosary? (1) The Blessed Virgin is the patroness of our country, thus we should call upon her to protect it. We can best do this through the rosary. (2) The rosary has always been a most powerful form of prayer, especially for peace. This is because it is directed to Mary, the Queen of Peace, and an unfailing intercessor between God and man. (3) Our Lady herself has pleaded that men say the rosary daily, that by doing so there would be peace. The wars of this century have shown how she has been ignored.

A call to arms, then, is necessary: With Mary leading us and the rosary our sword. We have her promise echoed here by Pope Pius IX: "If you desire peace in your hearts, in your homes, in your country, ASSEMBLE EVERY EVENING TO RECITE THE ROSARY." How we respond to this challenge may affect the future fate of this world.

The Eclipse of the Church

Having succeeded in infiltrating the Vatican and converting its Divine Mission into an engine of self-destruction, the forces of Satan are now using the press, radio and TV to help expedite the destruction of the Roman Catholic Church and the final paganization of Christianity. The attack is subtle, effective. Under the guise of "ecumenism," what Pope Pius X warned us about many years ago has happened. Modernism now directs the Church and is leading it down the primrose path to oblivion. With it will go the spiritual well-being of all Christians and, thus, they can more readily be molded into the pattern of Man demanded by the NEW WORLD ORDER.

The realization of the prophetic warning of Our Lady of La Salette is coming true. Moreover, the fulfillment of papal prophecies of Saint Malachy have ALREADY been achieved. Unfortunately, however, these warnings have been totally ignored, suppressed or ridiculed. But, now, thanks to the efforts of a team of concerned Religious, the whole story has been pieced together and is available to all concerned Christians.
